Statement of objects and reasons

The rate of salaries and daily allowances now payable to the Honourable Members of Legislative Assembly in this Union territory are cumulatively lower than those applicable to the Members of the Legislative Assemblies of the States, of Maharashtra, Gujarat and Mysore which are adjoining States. As the cost of living in Goa is as high as in those States the present bill seeks to raise the emoluments payable to Members of Legislative Assembly by amending the existing Act known as the Goa, Daman and Diu Salaries and Allowances of Members of the Legislative Assembly Act, 1964.

Financial memorandum

Clause 2 of the Bill seeks to amend the provision of section 3 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Salaries and Allowances of Members of the Legislative Assembly Act, 1964 so as to increase the daily allowance of Members from Rs. 15/- to Rs. 25/- per day and to remove the restriction that the Members residing at the place of meeting shall draw no daily allowance. If the Bill is passed into law, the approximate additional expenditure to the incurred in this behalf would be about Rs. 43,500/- per year.

Clause 3 of the Bill seeks to insert a new Section 3A in the Goa, Daman and Diu Salaries and Allowances of Members of the Legislative Assembly Act, 1964 so as to provide conveyance allowance. If the Bill is passed into law the additional expenditure to the incurred on this account would be about Rs. 31,200/- per year.
